Combined Task Force Aids Civil Defense Program Here

A special "task force" swung into action here Wednesday night, distributing into the homes of families in the Indian Wells Valley some 6,000 copies of Civil Defense Bulletin No. 1 in addition to informational brochures.

The 275-man unit was a combined force of local Boy Scouts and Civil Air Patrol cadets, working under the direction of Scout, CAP and Civil Defense leaders in the area.

In the group was Troop 414, China Lake's five-member handicapped troop of scouts.

Conferences Called

The Bulletin, issued late Wednesday afternoon, followed two conferences earlier in the day that were called to determine immediate civil defense actions to be taken by families in the action to take in the event of a nuclear attack against major California targets.

Included were "Shelter Construction," "What to Take into a shelter," "When to enter a shelter and when to leave" and How additional information can be obtained.

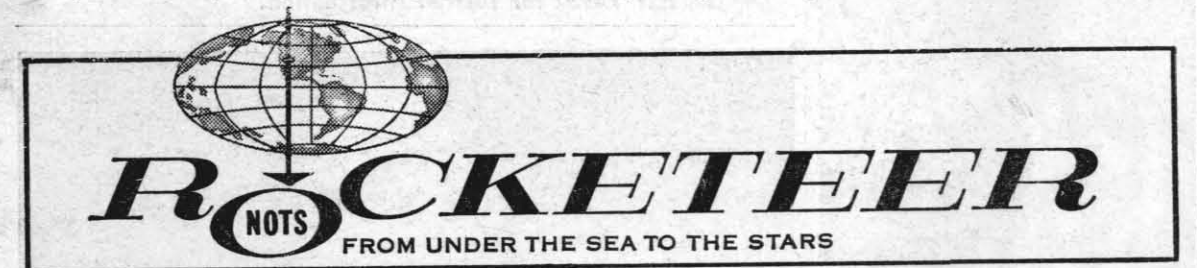

In addition to the home distribution that began following a "forced draft" printing operation Wednesday afternoon, lettercarriers distributed the bulletin to rural areas Thursday morning.

Still other bulletins were to be displayed in all public buildings, offices and major places of public gatherings.

A warning test of China Lake air raid sirens was scheduled for Friday noon, according to Fire Chief Davis. Sirens located atop the main fire house and at the Pilot Plant area were given a thorough electrical checkout Thursday afternoon.

The test was to have consisted of a steady, three-to-five minute siren sounding.

It listed a five-point plan of

UNITED FUND

Sound of Dollars Poetry to Chairman

- "We've only begun in our current drive;
'We've been busy as bees, in a honey hive.
'Money is flowing. But, oh, so slow.
'We'd like to ask you; Did you know,
'A successful drive depends upon you.
'Don't leave it to others, to turn in your due.
'We're not asking much; a pittance, per chance.
'Don't act like a pauper, with St. Vitus dance!
'Dig deep in your jeans, so you can say:
'I've given my share—A FULL DAY'S PAY!
'GIVE GENEROUSLY—GIVE NOW—GIVE UNITED."
—Capt. J. W. Hough

If donors to the current United Fund campaign failed to get the message through the use of simple terms this week, Captain Jack W. Hough reasoned that poetry might help!

chairman reported by Wednesday evening that approximately $2500 had been reported, "but this represents less than twenty-five percent of our population," he pointed out.

The week's "Pat-on-the-Back" award went to Lieutenant Don Johnston, (Code 16) who reported attainment of 100 percent in his NOTS officer group.

Donors in that group turned up with a $12 per-man donation! Funds Swell

Military personnel attached to NAF were still 10 percent from completion point and reports indicated that the total amount from that command would swell significantly by Nov. 1.

Captain Hough called on solicitors to turn in funds outlined in the drive's initial campaign, "so that we can reflect a valid picture of how the drive is progressing."

He noted that some divisions are "holding back" with their reports until they get information on other departments, saying (Continued on Page 8)

Station Pass Policies To Undergo Revisions

A general up-dating of Station regulations governing administration and issuance of all passes is being introduced at China Lake this week, according to Lieutenant Commander Jack R. Griffin, Security Officer.

He said the revised pass system would provide greater flexibility for limiting access to the Station and its restricted areas, as the need arises.

All permanent passes and those of a temporary nature permitting access to restricted areas will include photographs of its bearers under the soon to be issued instruction.

Photographs will also be mounted on dependent community passes.

Guests Permitted Of major significance, according to Lcdr. Griffin, is that few Station residents and employees now holding permanent type Community passes will be affected by the new system. A continued policy of permitting guests to visit Station residents is included in the plan. Residents would be required to notify the Pass Desk at Security Office in advance to the actual visit, as has been customary. Pass Office personnel will verify guest visits by calling sponsors at their listed Station residence numbers. Additional Facility Added In conjunction with the updated system, a photographic facility for taking and mounting pictures of pass holders is being established as a supplementary annex to those currently in effect. 'Big Sound' of Barbershop Harmony to Ring at NOTS

Those spine-tingling 7th chords of barbershop harmony fame will thrill the Station Theatre audience Saturday night, Nov. 3, at 8:15 p.m. when the China Lake Sweet Adelines Chapter stages its first women's quartette concert "Let's Sing an Old Time Song."

Five award winning guest quartettes from Southern California will demonstrate how performers as well as the audience can enjoy a fun-packed evening of entertainment. The local Sweet Adelines chorus and quartette, the China Dolls, will open the show. Preceding the parade of guest quartettes will be a four-chord barbershop harmony society, the Harmony Prospectors. The musical event is being produced to bring a two-fold benefit to the community. First, to introduce to valley residents the fast growing nationwide hobby of singing four-part harmony barbershop style for men and women; second, to raise funds for the Navy Wives Club to help finance their worthwhile community projects.

A traditional "Afterglow" will be held after the performance at the Elks Club in Ridgecrest (Continued on Page 8) istence.

Lcdr. Griffin said delay in receiving those passes requiring photographs would be minimized, "with the full cooperation of visitors and sponsoring agencies or persons."

In preparation stages this week is a revised instruction that will be given Station-wide distribution. Its contents explain fully all areas of change in policies governing the issuance of Station and Community passes, Lcdr. Griffin said.

Emphasis was placed on the fact that off-Station visitors from the Ridgecrest areas must be sponsored by a Station resident. Authorized vendors visiting the Station will be carried on a list specifying commercial representatives authorized to visit the Station, it was pointed out.

that he "commended the competitive spirit" but emphasized the need for progressive reporting.

The Naval Air Facility Commanding Officer repeated the enthusiasm he had expressed earlier in the campaign, "that we'll go over the top this year, in less time than any year previous.

"But, this is based on the wholehearted cooperation and generosity of all personnel, military and civilian, within the China Lake community!" he added.

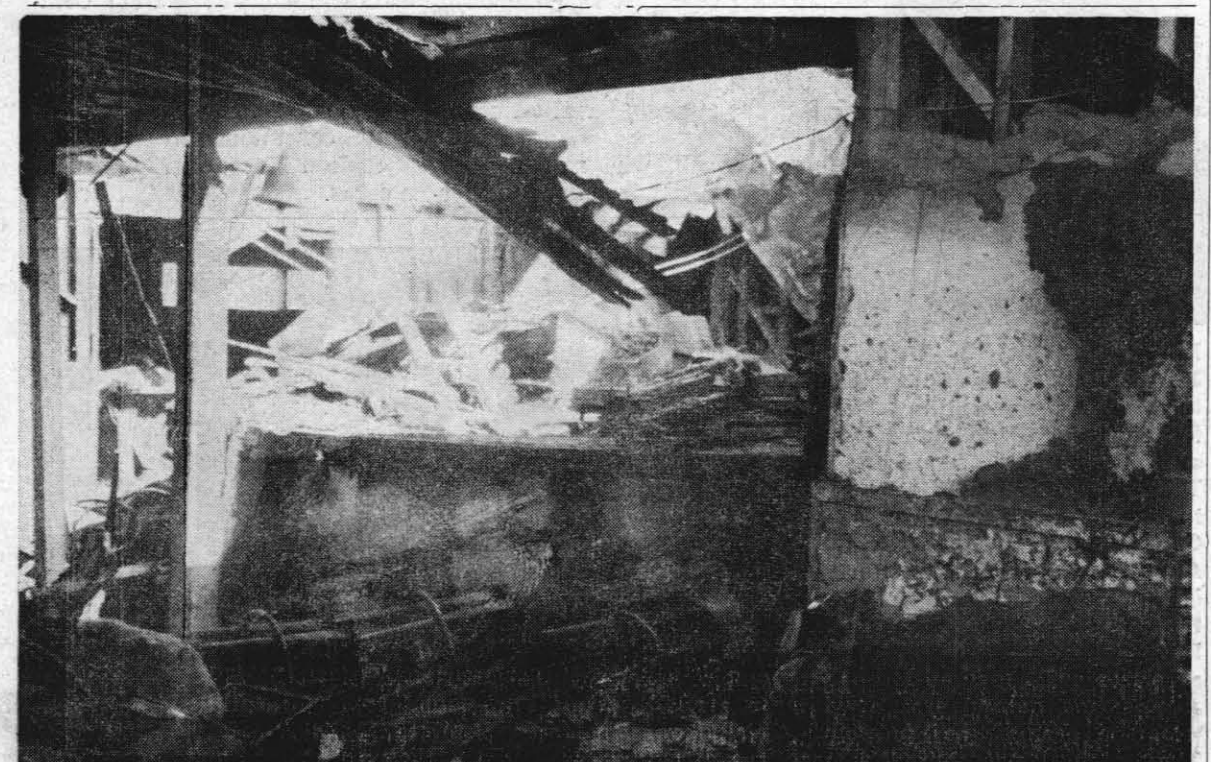

The campaign that got underway last week will extend through Nov. 19. However, it was originally hoped that all departments could attain their individual goals by the end of October.

'Home Beautiful' at China Lake

PRIDE IN PLANNING—This week's "Home Beautiful" of Louise and Harry Keyzers at 528-M Nimitz reflects eight years of planning and hard work that began with a desert spot of sand and now boasts the best 1200 foot oval shaped dichondra lawn on the Station. The west end features a stone wall down which cascades a waterfall into a fish pond at its base. The east end is brightened by a rose garden and a utility shed with glowing red Chinese characters. Pyracantha border the lawn from which rises a tree with a climbing vine which winds around the base and climbs 15 feet into the limbs for a year 'round green effect. Floodlights enhance enjoyment of outdoor living.

CHARRED REMAINS OF CPO Mess (Open) following blaze that last Friday morning gutted the one-story structure, were sifted by board of investigation this week, seeking clues to fire's cause. Club was built here, starting in 1946, by voluntary labor. Plans for new club are being prepared for architectural designs. (See story on Page 3.)
